WORLD CUP SKIING CHAMPION BODE MILLER & SUPERFUND ASSET MANAGEMENT HOST A DAY OF GOLF & SAILING AT NEWPORT'S EXCLUSIVE
CARNEGIE ABBEY CLUB

Proceeds Raised Will Benefit the Turtle Ridge Foundation

NEWPORT, RI– August 18, 2007 – The Turtle Ridge Foundation (www.turtleridgefoundation.org), established by four-time World Champion and reigning SuperG World Cup title holder Bode Miller and his family, along with Superfund Asset Management and Carnegie Abbey, present a luxurious day of golf, dinner and sailing aboard a private yacht and dinner along the Newport Coast. Scheduled for September 10, 2007 at the Carnegie Abbey Club in Portsmouth, Rhode Island, all proceeds raised from the event will benefit The Turtle Ridge Foundation, a non profit organization dedicated to supporting and creating programs that solve difficult environmental, health and economic issues.

“In an effort to continually raise money for the foundation in order to help people in need, we wanted to create a one-of-a-kind event to celebrate the end of summer,” said Bode Miller. “I am definitely looking forward to mingling with the guests, playing a great golf game and having the opportunity to look at the Newport shoreline aboard a world-class yacht.”

Hosted at the luxurious members-only Carnegie Abbey Club, guests will play 18 holes of golf on a Scottish links-style championship golf course designed by the renowned Donald Steel. There will also be an al fresco luncheon overlooking the water, a sunset sail with cocktails around Newport aboard a private yacht and a dinner, all with Bode Miller. To allow for easy mingling and a quick pace of play, the event will be limited to 100 people. .
